Part 5

In this part, we will create a lacy brook all the way around our meadow. I chose this pattern because it reminds me of dappled water. And who doesn't love a bit of dappled water or dappled shade? Or better yet, a combination of the two!

If you know that you make your chains much tighter than your other stitches (I'm looking at you, Yankers!), please be mindful of not making your chain stitches too tight! This part will be wonky, but the next part will start pulling it into shape.

The chart for Rounds 27 – 37 is at the end of Round 37.
